AlUla

The world largest living museum sheltering layer upon layer of human history waiting to be unfolded. Attracting tourists with marvels like the Elephant Rock where the golden sand landscapes enhance the beauty that was shaped by millions of years of wind and water erosion. Hegra, Saudi Arabia's first UNESCO World Heritage Site, where wells and stone-lined water channels demonstrate to visitors the civilized and remarkable craftsmanship. Located amid the desert of Ashar Valley is Maraya the stunning piece of art and the centrepiece of AlUla's growing culture.
